New Year New Opportunities

I got some great feedback from my message last Sunday around having small rear-view mirrors and large windscreens. If where we have been in life influences our world more than where we would like to go it's like driving a car with the windscreen and rear-view mirror reversed. Progress would be slow and catastrophe a near certainty! It's not much wonder we often feel trapped in circumstance when all we can see is the circumstance! We need to start to see ourselves and our lives how God sees us.

In his second letter to the Corinthian church the apostle Paul encourages the church to move beyond their current experience. When read from The Message translation the language in chapter 6 is powerful. 'We didn't fence you in. The smallness you feel comes from within you. Your life isn't small, but you are living it in a small way. Open up your lives. Live openly and expansively.' The time for small thinking is past. Jesus' desire is for us to stop limiting ourselves and to start living the amazing lives He has planned for us. 2019 presents new opportunities for us to stop living in the limitations of our own wisdom and start living by faith. Why not spend some time in prayer with a mentor and ask, 'What does Jesus want for me in 2019?'. That question and the pursuit of it is your ticket to living openly & expansively. 2019 is a new year that represents a new opportunity to be all we can be.

*God Bless
Ps. Shane*
